

Money Wise Aggie

FACTS & FIGURES 2015-2016

The Money Wise Aggie (MWA) program was established in June 2007 to help students make smart personal finance decisions while pursuing their academic degrees, in order to lay a foundation for financial success throughout life. Each MWA counselor provided objective, unbiased advice, allowing students to make smart and informed decision about their finances. In Fall 2016, the Money Wise Aggie Program was replaced by the new Money Education (ME) Center. With greater resources and additional staff, the ME Center hopes to educate and even larger number of Aggie students about money so that they can have greater financial success during and after college.

FREE

and confidential financial literacy services for all Texas A&M University Students!

137

presentations were given during 2015-2016

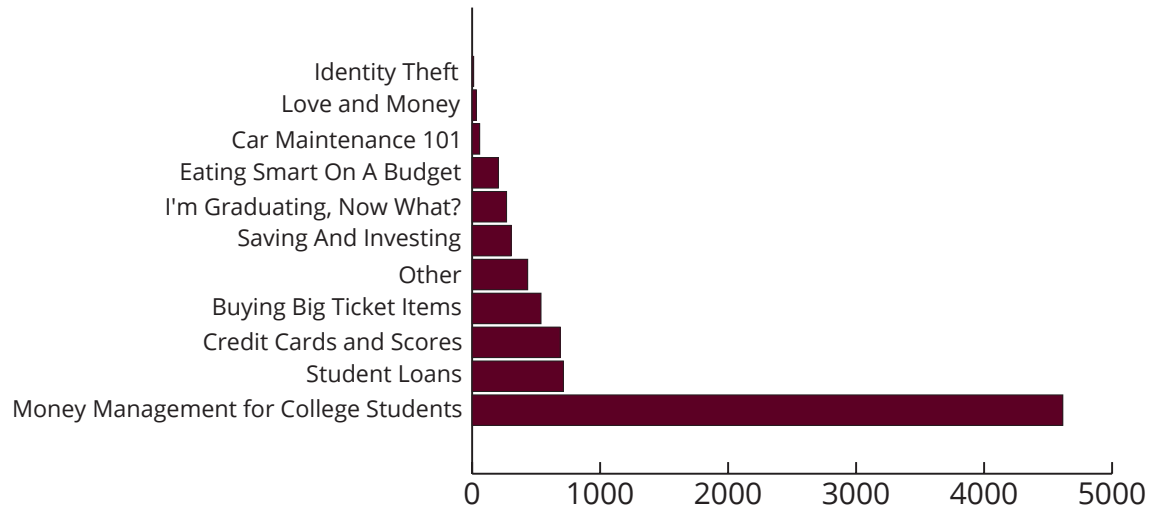

99.9%

of participants would recommend workshops to others

617

students attended Money Wise Aggie workshops in the Pavillion in 2015-2016

Number of Attendees, by Event

Need for Financial Literacy

The Money Wise Aggie program accepted speaking requests to present workshops and related information to a variety of campus organizations and community groups. The Money Wise Aggie was also used by professors to educate students in their classroom. Students subscribed to the Money Wise Monthly and received emails containing financial management insights. Money Wise Aggie also offered online workshops with topics such as Renter's Insurance, Auto Insurance, and Student Loans.

Events By Month

