Release of Financial Aid Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

In order to release financial aid information, the student must submit a Release of Financial Aid Information form. In the case that a parent’s or spouse's documents/information is part of the request, the parent or spouse must also sign the form.

Student Name: _________________________________

Student UIN: _________________________________

By signing below, I am requesting that my financial aid information be released to

_____________________________________________________________________________

_________________________________   _________________

Student Signature       Date

Parent or Spouse Consent

By signing below, I am requesting that my financial aid information be released in conjunction with that of my student/spouse to the party listed above.

________________________________    _________________

Parent/Spouse Signature      Date