$933 million was awarded to all students through financial aid and student employment.

73% of aggies received financial assistance.

23% of all students worked part time on campus (work study, student wages, or assistantships).

29% of all students received a student loan.

Scholarships & Financial Aid also administers several large scholarship programs, assists with education abroad funding, operates a full-service Student Employment Office and Money Education Center, and processes military education benefits.

The figures on this sheet represent all students enrolled at Texas A&M University except those who attended Galveston or Qatar for the full 2020-2021 academic year.